Christie Mystery Nears Performance Standards

Completely blocked as of last night's rehearsal, Agatha Christie's three-act drama, Ten Little Indians, goes into the polishing stages throughout this final week of practice. The play will be presented by the Columbian Players under the direction of the Rev. Lawrence Heiman, c.p.p.s., moderator of the players, and his assistant, Charles Burkart, Detroit freshman.

CHECKING UP on inflections for "Ten Little Indians" are Clarence Burwell, Lafayette, O., freshman, and Ruth Moosmiller and Anita Feldhaus, both of Rensselaer. All three carry supporting roles in next week end's production. Of the three, Anita is the sole veteran of St. Joe's stage.

Friday and Sunday evenings, May 9 and 11, have been set aside for the play's showing in the College Theatre. It is to be noted that dates will permit those attending the Monogram Formal to see the play also.

According to Father Heiman, play books will no longer be used as the cast rehearses nightly to bring the play to production standards. Rehearsals now include the entire cast, but some individual instruction will be given next week. Leads in the play will be portrayed by Howard Cummings, Chicago freshman, and Miss Helen Feldhaus, of Rensselaer. Don Horst, freshman from Calumet City, Ill., will carry the chief supporting role.

Large Stage Set Needed

The stage design for Ten Little Indians, modeled after the professional production, will be the largest and most elaborate set used this school year; it will extend over the entire depth of the stage. Besides its production for the legitimate stage, this play has been published as a magazine serial and a book; it was presented over the radio and in the movies several years ago under the title of Then There Were None. It was only recently released for amateur showing.

The Ten Little Indians in the play refer to a cluster of statuettes on a mantel, one of which strangely breaks each time a person in the house is mysteriously murdered. Tickets Will Be On Sale

Charles Farrell, senior from Chicago, is in charge of ticket distribution and sales. Tickets will be placed in Rensselaer stores for sale several days in advance; they will cost seventy-five cents for the outsiders.

Student tickets will be distributed either in advance in the cafeteria or at the door on the evenings of the performance. Student tickets are free, and no seats will be reserved.

State Groups Honor Two Local Priests Chaplain

The Rev. Gilbert F. Esser, c.p.p.s., associate professor of Latin and Greek, has recently been elected State Chaplain of the Reserve Officers Association. Announcement of the results of the election which took place at the association's convention in Indianapolis was made at the last chapter meeting held in Kentland, Ind.

Father Esser, who holds the rank of major in the Army Reserve, served on active duty in the European Theatre of Operations.

Toastmaster

The Rev. John W. Baechle, c.p.p.s., associate professor of biology, has been asked to act as toastmaster at the annual convention of the Indiana Audubon Society which is being held at the Turkey Run State Park, today and tomorrow.

Father Baechle, who is now second vice-president of the Society, has a collection of seventy-two bird photos currently on exhibition at the park. This collection has been on display since last summer.

St. Joseph's Accepts Science Commission; Delegates Elect Soph

At the last regional meeting of the National Federation of Catholic College Students for this semester, Herman Reas, Defiance, Ohio, sophomore was elected chairman of a new commission on science, which the delegates from St. Joseph's accepted as a project. Another new commission, on international relations, was accepted by St. Mary's of the Woods College, Terre Haute, Ind.

In the election of officers for the coming school year, John Lynch, freshman from Hammond, Ind., was chosen vice-president. The meeting was held April 27 at St. Mary's College, South Bend; all seven colleges in the region were represented in the meeting.

A four-hour summary of the work done this year was also on the agenda of the meeting, and the ten commissions were accepted by the delegates representing the various colleges. More detailed information may be expected in the next issue of Cogs, monthly publication of NFCCS, which, the Rev. Joseph Scheuer, c.p.p.s., moderator, states will appear May 15.

The next regular regional meeting of the NFCCS will be held Oct. 15, at St. Francis College, Fort Wayne, Ind. St. Joseph's now has three commissions: on the press, the missions, and science.

Librarians Meet

The Revs. Anthony Gamble, c.p.p.s., Raphael Gross, c.p.p.s., Gerard Lutkemeier, c.p.p.s., Clarence Schurman, c.p.p.s., and Albert Wuest, c.p.p.s., will attend the spring meeting of the Catholic Library Association, Ill. unit, May 3, at Mundelein College, Chicago, Ill.

Father Wuest will lecture to the college section on the literature of chemistry. Sister Joan, head of the chemistry department at St. Francis College, Joliet, Ill., will lead a group discussion on Father Wuest's talk. Father Schurman is chairman of the college section.

Artist Returns to End Entertainment Series

Mr. Richard Carpenter, concert pianist, will conclude the Speckbaugh Memorial Entertainment Series with a program to be given in the College Theatre next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Carpenter has played in Collegeville before; his last appearance was a program dedicated to the late Rev. Paul Speckbaugh, c.p.p.s., given April 9, 1946.

Mr. Carpenter has been giving concerts since he was ten years old. He studied at the Julliard School of Music, Columbia University, and at the Paris Conservatory of Music. Prior to his memorial program last year, he played here in March, 1940. He and Father Speckbaugh were quite well acquainted.

During the war he toured the American Fifth and the British Eighth Army fronts. In some of his overseas tours he entertained with such personages as actress Madeleine Carroll and song writer Irving Berlin.

In one period of five months overseas, he broadcast more than 2000 concerts from the Rome radio station and the British Broadcasting Corporation.

This final concert will be the eighth program of the Speckbaugh Series.

Frosh Takes Essay Contest Grand Award

For an essay entitled "The Interlopers," Robert Burns, freshman from Indianapolis, was awarded first prize of $25 in the annual Alumni Essay Contest. Burns dealt with the conflict that has existed between philosophers and physicists and showed that out of this conflict some good has been derived.

James E. Miller, freshman Community student from Gettysburg, Penna., took second prize of $10 for an essay on the racial problem entitled "Anyone Can Talk." He arrived at five positive norms which he called "An elementary attempt to outline a course of action to aid both whites and blacks to build or rehabilitate themselves, as the case may be."

Honorable mention was awarded to Leo Tonner, sophomore Community student and son of Mr. Paul Tonner, professor of music. Leo wrote a biographical sketch of the Rev. Patrick Payton, C.S.C., and called it "The Orator of Mary."

In the creative writing contest, Miller received third honorable mention for a familiar essay, "On Women."

Banquet Speaker Gives Views on Training Scope

Speaking at the annual Commerce Club banquet last Wednesday evening, Mr. Frank J. Travers, second vice-president of the Lincoln Life Insurance Co., expressed the conviction that a Liberal Arts education has an advantage in that it stresses principles, which never change, instead of techniques, which are constantly changing.

Mr. Travers, himself a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, touched upon a wide variety of topics informally—the Monon Railroad, the life cycle of a depression, the housing situation, the high cost of living, and the kind of a job a young man ought to

Into the Cafeteria Charge Our Own 600 Dietician Tames Them with Delicacies

By Roy F. Czarnecki

While the average housewife frets about feeding one man once a day, Miss Margaret Brown dietitian at St. Joseph's College, takes in stride the feeding of 600 men three times daily.

Miss Brown was graduated from the University of Illinois after completing a course in nutrition. By the time she arrived at St. Joseph's last fall, she had complemented her education with 21 years of practical experience in the nutrition field all over the world.

Through observation she has learned what food men like most. As far as meat goes, steak and turkey are leading the hit parade. Among salads, gelatin has first preference, with lettuce running a close second. Lettuce goes especially well when it is topped with Thousand Island dressing.

Perennial favorites as appetizers are pickles, olives and onions. Potatoes, of which the 600 men consume 10,000 pounds monthly, are preferred mashed, with French fries as a welcome variety. Ice cream is the dessert favorite. Fifty gallons of it are consumed each time it is served. Milk tops the list of beverages; 180 gallons are used daily. Coffee has a slightly less demand; 120 pounds are used weekly.

The bakery department, capably handled by Paul Gates, turns out an average of 120 loaves of bread daily. Twice weekly pies are baked. Fruit pies are the favorites of the collegians, with apple, as usual, topping the list.

The beef and pork used at St. Joseph's are raised and slaughtered by George Shuster, livestock manager, and kept in frozen readiness at the Jasper County food locker. Eggs and poultry used in the cafeteria also come from the farm managed by Mr. Shuster just east of Drexel Hall, long known as the Old Indian School. The feed used on the stock farm is grown on the general college farms managed by Richard Winter.

As the 600 hungry men file past the gauntlet of dishes in St. Joseph's new cafeteria, they are getting 3,500 or more calories daily. Miss Brown's balanced menus definitely assure them an abundance of vitamins and minerals.

The average housewife frets over making one man eat what's good for him and like it. Miss Brown knows that trick. Ask any of the 600 men.

Bursar in Omaha

The Rev. Joseph Otte, c.p.p.s., college treasurer, will attend the Educational Buyers Association Convention to be held in Omaha, Neb., April 30 through May 3. The convention will consist of lectures of interest to anyone dealing with buying for educational systems.

Weekly Calendar

Monday, May 5, 7 p.m.—Commerce Club meeting; classroom building, room 132.

Monday, May 5, 1-5 p.m., and Tuesday, May 6, 8-noon—Graduate Record Examination.

Tuesday, May 6, 6:30 p.m.—Father Falter Post Party.

Wednesday, May 7, 8 p.m.—Richard Carpenter, concert pianist; theatre.

Friday, May 9, 8 p.m.—Presentation of "Ten Little Indians" by the Columbian Players; theatre.

Easy Does It - Not

Well, are you still holding your end up in classes, or has the vernal invasion weighted it down to the extent that you 'just can't carry it any farther'? For certain, the spring season is definitely conducive to a noticeable reduction of man's efforts and aptitude for labor of any shape or form, mental or manual. College men are not exceptions to the above assertion. Their fancies, too, lightly turn, when shirt-sleeve weather arrives, to thoughts which are not too deeply imbedded in the pressing work at hand. And, according to them, it's easy to coast downhill.

With but three weeks of classes remaining white on heavily blackened and scribbled Collegeville calendars, we are truly over the hump and headed downgrade toward the end. It seems ideal that this time should be set aside for the admiration of, and participation in, the beauties of spring: the days of increasing length and warmth, the baseball games, the incense-like smell of burning wood from the swamp, the prom, daylight saving time, et ad infinitum. Spring was a long time coming since September, and the winter was a typically trying one.

If, perchance, you are taking advantage of the season and the remaining time, and are coasting downhill, it may not be a bad idea to consider that there is yet another ascension to negotiate, this beginning Monday, May 28. Our acquired momentum may not be sufficient to carry us to its summit without some persistent pumping on our part. Obviously, the sooner we start working while on the downgrade, the less we will have to do on the incline, and the more will be our certainty of attaining the peak.

FOLLOWING THE FLICKERS

With Dick Causland

RITZ THEATRE—May 4-6—It Happened In Brooklyn—The Voice, Frank Sinatra, and the nose, Jimmy Durante, combine to make the music and the comedy for this picture about America's most publicized burrough. Peter Lawford and Kathryn Grayson form a new team to supply the romance. Unobjectionable for general patronage.

May 9-10—Last Frontier Uprising—A new type of Western, filmed in trucolor, co-stars Adrian Booth and Monte Hale. Adrian is a self-sufficient horse raiser who believes Monte is one of the worst type of criminals. With the help of friends and his dog, Skipper, Monte clears his name. No decency rating available.

PALACE THEATRE—May 4-6—Rage In Heaven—Robert Montgomery portrays the handsome, intelligent, but emotionally unstable hero who plans and attempts to execute the perfect crime. Ingrid Bergman, his wife, is the cause of this crime. Unobjectionable for adults.

May 7-8—Dick Tracy vs. Cueball—Dick Tracy, the super-sleuth, walks off the comic strip pages with his usual assistants to track down the unknown killer Cueball. Ian Keith as Vitamin Flintheart is the source of amusement. As usual Tracy's devotion to duty rules over his love for Tess Trueheart. No decency rating available.

May 9-10—Valley of Fear—Johnny Mack Brown returns to his home after a long absence to find himself accused of embezzlement. With the aid of his friend, Raymond Hatton, his six-shooter, and his fists, Johnny sets out to square his name. Unobjectionable for general patronage.

What Do You Think?

Here Are Views Of A Few

In the U. S. there are approximately twenty million Catholics. Many have made themselves famous in the fields of science, in the arts, and in the world of sports. This week the roving reporter presented the following question: "In your opinion, who is one of the most outstanding Catholic lay persons in the U. S.?"

Sophomore, John Sullivan, Chicago, Ill., cast his vote in favor of Clare Boothe Luce. And here is why: "Mrs. Luce, as a recent convert to the Catholic faith, has done an untold amount of good by her timely articles on joining the Church. A new member of the faith, and with wide results already achieved, there seems to be even greater progress for her in the future."

Frank Coman, education major from East Chicago, Ind., said: "Louis Budenz, the former Communist and now a Catholic, is an ideal member to be placed in this category. As a teacher, writer, and lecturer, he is winning many to the fold of Catholicism."

A student from Flint, Mich., Bob Daly, has this to remark: "A man who has done a great deal for his religious belief is Bing Crosby. He has received wide acclaim for his movie roles as a priest." Bob further commented: "Bing also is a noted promoter for the family rosary."

"I may be prejudiced," said Fabian Brusok, Sheboygan, Wis., junior, "but in my estimation this person would be Bruce of Bruce Publishing Co., Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Bruce specializes in printing Catholic works, and in such a field the benefit is manifold."

Mishawaka, Ind., freshman, Dick Cleary, pondered on the matter and declared: "Mrs. Luce is an outstanding laywoman in the Church today. Her brilliance was remarked upon by Msgr. Sheen. Also as a prominent figure in politics, radio, and drama, Clare Luce has been instrumental in spreading interest in the Catholic faith."

Pre-med student, Rene Kempen, St. Anne, Ill., allowed his preference to be accorded to Mr. Crosby. "His two pictures that were about a Catholic priest are two good reasons why I like him. Then his participation in Catholic radio work has a stimulating effect towards Catholic Action," Rene said.

A sophomore, Bill McCaslin, Indianapolis, Ind., stated: "William Thomas Walsh is a man over whom the Catholic Church can well be proud. Both in writing and lecturing he has been a loyal son of the Church; as a result of his work, there are many converts."

The opinions were varied, with Clare Boothe Luce and Bing Crosby tying for first place. Others mentioned are excellent Catholics whose position in life has afforded them gratifying results for the Church.

CAMPUS CAPERS

Only four more weeks left. Everyone is rinking carrot juice to have his eyes sharpened for that crucial final week.

The "Question of the Week," supplied by Joe Albers: "What St. Joe student reminds you of 'Satch' of the Bowery Kids?" The answer, according to Joe is—Len Pudge, naturally. Thank you, Joe.

Those who had doubts of Tom Jordan's linguistic abilities have been silenced. Tom maneuvered himself out of the recommendation by his fellow Seifertites that his creative writing prize money be invested in the nearby, off-campus social center.

Jim Buckley made his first visit to a big city when he attended Jim Heiny's nuptials in Ft. Wayne. In the courthouse square Jim spotted some steps leading underground. "Gee, look, they even have subways here," he said. "Want to take a ride?" offered his host. "Sure!" Jim did—to the public rest room.

Those wishing to go to the Xavier Hall Prom should contact Bob Hunt, chairman of this year's hop. Bob says that it is going to be a live-wire affair this year.

The Committee for the observance of Yom Kipper as a freeday at St. Joseph's, composed of leading Yiddish students, Bob Meiners, Frank Long, Pat Ormsby, and Dick Cleary, has placed a petition before the Veterans Club asking that the school initiate a compulsory R.O.T. C. training program for all veterans. The course will include two-hour drill sessions on Mon., Wed., and Fri., and a 10-mile hike each Sunday afternoon. It is expected that the measure will be greeted enthusiastically by all the vets.

That illustrious ex-lieutenant Hugh Davey takes this week's prize of two sticks of bubble gum for being voted the "Casanova of the Week" by Squint magazine. At the last count he had two screaming dates to the May 10 affair.

"High — inside!"

Attention, Veterans

Administration Training Officer, Mr. A. D. Clausen, has supplied the following regulations for veterans who have INTERRUPTIONS REQUESTS FOR ANNUAL (Accrued) LEAVE, and TRANSFERS TO OTHER INSTITUTIONS to report incident to the end of the spring semester.

Public Law No. 346

ONE. Veterans training under P. L. No. 346 at Saint Joseph's College will be automatically interrupted effective June 1, 1947. All Trainees must complete VA Form 7-1963, "Report of Compensation from Productive Labor," before the end of the semester.

TWO. Trainees, who are not graduating, may apply for accrued leave, which will continue their subsistence allowance up to a maximum of thirty days. Veterans applying for leave are cautioned that their total period of eligibility and entitlement will be reduced accordingly, and that they will be losing the benefit of tuition payments for the amount of leave so granted.

All veterans are further cautioned that payments of subsistence allowance, whether in training or on leave, and Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance (Unemployment Compensation) covering the same period of time are not approved, and if such payments are made, recovery of Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance will be made.

THREE. Trainees desiring to apply for accrued leave may do so by completing VA Form 7-1908, "Notice of Change of Training Status," prior to May 8.

FOUR. Trainees desiring to transfer to another school, either for the summer or fall semester, should secure a letter of acceptance from that school and then contact V.A. Training Officer, Mr. A. D. Clausen, as soon as possible.

Public Law No. 16

ONE. Transfers of veterans training under P. L. No. 16 will be handled as indicated in the preceding paragraph.

TWO. All other necessary procedures incident to the end of the semester will be accomplished by Mr. A. D. Clausen in individual conference with the veteran on or before May 8, 1947.

NOTE. Copies of these VA Forms are available at the Office of the Registrar.

Like an Oasis in the Desert

It is appropriate that refreshing May, the welcome respite from winter's snows and April's winds and rains, the last chance before summer's stifling, oppressive months, should be dedicated to Mother. Our Mother on earth and the Blessed Virgin in heaven both are wanting our prayers, the least we can tender them in insufficient, unequal return for theirs bestowed upon us.

Pillars Of Freedom . . . .

CHRISTIAN BOOKS

Lords of the Press by George Seldes

The state of health of a democracy or any nation, for that matter, can be measured by the health of its press. This timely book answers some frightful questions that have begun to worry thoughtful citizens of America.

Pearl Harbor by George Morgenstern

This is the documentary story of how the United States got into World War II. Here is the record of secret diplomacy and military intrigue which resulted in the catastrophe of December 7, 1941. This book, despite—or perhaps on account of—its careful scholarship, unfolds like a mystery story.

No Exit by Jean-Paul Sartre

Here is a modern morality play. Its three chief characters are contemporary human beings condemned to a new kind of hell because of their crimes against simple humanity. Its swelling climax arises from their separate discoveries of each other and the way in which their sins are to be punished.

The Dynamics of Literature by Nathan Comfort Starr

This book in itself is a plea for standards of literature and an analysis of the basic force which gives literature its peculiar power as a fine art. It concentrates on a few general principles and avoids both intricate aesthetics and loose "literary appreciation."

The Life of Cardinal Mercier by John Gade

This biography is an impartial but exceedingly sympathetic and vivid picture of the man who, more than any other man, brought to focus in a time of violence and confusion the moral and spiritual forces of mankind. Mercier emerges as the outstanding heroic figure of World War I, the principal protagonist of the eternal values.

Collier Quips

By Joe Collier

Latest data has it that Gil Hodges is still with the Dodgers. He or a player by the name of Howell will be retained as third-string catcher. Whoever is cut will probably play in the Montreal League, a Triple A circuit.

Frank Stautett is playing with a Selma, Ala., outfit. A knee injury has been hampering him. Jim Beane is now twirling with a team representing Abilene, Texas.

"All I know about baseball, I owe to my brother," To quote Tommy Henrich, star outfielder of the New York Yankees and brother of Ed Henrich, who graduated from St. Joseph's in 1927.

Softball is in full swing. While strolling about the campus on St. Joseph's Day, we observed six teams in action simultaneously. One game taking place near the bandstand showed that we have a couple of very capable hurlers in the guises of Dan McDevitt, of Gary, Ind., and Jim Flood, of Lakewood, Ohio.

Odds-n-Ends: They must not grow many pitchers in a Teachers' school. . . . Johnny Lucas has agreed to start a "Dugout Dope" program of his own. While not chasing foul balls, he manages to make the rounds searching for appropriate comments. . . . Charley Hodges is just about to deflate the theory that pitchers can't hit; he lofted one on top of Science Hall. . . . After Dave Jones' sparkling array of glib chatter during the Teachers' game, he has been appointed Chief Heckler of opposing coaches. . . . Some wise guy asking, as darkness was but a few minutes away in the Indiana State game, when the second game started.

The Sharpies and the 300 Club had just finished three games Friday night at tension pitch. Compilation showed the Sharpies winning by 98 pins, which seemed high. A check revealed a 100-pin error. This resulted in the 300 Club now winning by two pins. A cross-check then turned up a ten-pin error. The Sharpies were in the lead again.

After exhausting the minds of all accounting majors present with still no agreement, the participants sidled home mumbling something about a math prof for the solution or bringing an adding machine for future matches.

Pumas Run Victory String to 3; 26 Safeties in 14-3, 11-8 Wins

Three Pitchers Hold Chicago Teachers To 5 Scattered Hits

Dick Scharf's Pumas romped to a 14-3 victory last Saturday over Chicago Teachers College. Bating and fielding gems and a plague of errors were all a part of the afternoon spectacle. Not until the sixth inning did the Teachers cross the plate; they added another run in the eighth and a third in the ninth.

The Pumas broke loose in their half of the third inning, and when the nightmare was over, they had tallied seven runs. Mauri Angermeier opened with a double on an error by the Teachers' left fielder. Bob Esner brought him in with a scorching line drive through third and wound up on second.

Three Walks Follow

Bohney, Scollard, and Bauer walked, forcing in Esner. Gerry Leahy bunted down first base line, and was safe on a pitcher's error. Bohney scored. Charlie Hodges, starting pitcher, placed a clean single in right field, scoring Scollard and Bauer.

Meylon sacrificed to fetch Leahy across the plate and advance Hodges to third. He scored as Angermeier, the next man up, grounded out. At bat the second time, Esner flied out to end the stampede.

Scollard Reaches Lake

In the fourth inning, Ellspermann tripled to left; Bohney was safe on an error. A wild pitch brought in the first run. Scollard hit a line drive that bounced on the road and rolled to the front-lawn pond. He rounded the bases. Three more tallies.

A run in the fifth, another in the sixth, and two in the eighth inning rounded out the Puma scoring. Charley Hodges allowed but two hits and no runs in five innings, then was saved for important days ahead.

Outstanding Athlete To Receive Trophy

At the basketball banquet scheduled for Wednesday, May 14, an attractive trophy will be awarded to the outstanding athlete on the campus.

The winner of the trophy to be given by the Adams Hat Co., will be judged on the traits of enthusiasm, sportsmanship, athletic ability, team spirit, and accomplishment. George Ellspermann, Heiny Kauffman, and Tom Scollard were the three choices of the Student Council in a meeting held April 28. Three more men will be chosen by the coaching staff. The names of these six men, restricted to members of the junior and senior classes, will be presented to the Athletic Board, and the entire student body will then vote on their individual choice.

Awards to members of the intramural basketball and bowling championship teams will also be presented at the banquet.

Rain Storms Cause Four-Ply Sport Cut

St. Joseph's undefeated baseball squad was prevented from seeking its fourth and fifth victories on April 29 when a scheduled doubleheader with Valparaiso University was rained out. This marked the second time this year that a twin bill with the Uhlans was cancelled. An April 19 doubleheader at Valparaiso was also postponed because of rain.

The Puma golf, tennis, and track teams were slated to open their seasons April 29, also against Valparaiso. Rain also forced their cancellation.

On May 7, the April 19 twin bill with Valparaiso will be played on the Uhlans' field. The second doubleheader, as well as the golf, tennis and track matches will be rescheduled, but no definite dates have as yet been set.

Middle Innings Prove Deadly To Sycamores

Scoring all their runs in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings, the Pumas won their second straight game, April 24, over Indiana State's Sycamores, 11-8. The contest was in sharp contrast to the opening day's pitchers' battle. The Pumas connected for 17 hits; State, for 11.

Seven pitchers saw action—four for the Sycamores, three for the Pumas. None of the former were especially effective. Hank Knight, Puma starter, twirled good ball for six innings, then tired. Lou Vasquez retired the side in the seventh; Tom Lynch pitched the eighth and ninth. Knight received credit for the victory.

The first three innings were scoreless. In the bottom half of the fourth, the Pumas scored three runs on two errors, a hit by Sullivan, and a two-run single by Scollard.

Two errors and a walk proved costly in the top of the fifth, and State scored four unearned runs. The roof fell on the Sycamores, however, when the Pumas came to bat: three runs in this frame, and five in the sixth chased three State hurlers from the hill.

Scollard brought in three runs with a pair of singles in these innings; Ellspermann added two more on a single and a triple; Bauer's triple to deep left center completed the total.

With a 11-4 lead as the seventh inning opened, Knight weakened. Before Vasquez, aided by a shoe-string catch by left fielder Bob Esner, could outen the fire, three runners had crossed the plate. Lynch allowed the Sycamores another run in the eighth.

Monogram Men Plan Initiation of Cagers; Entertainment for All

A party in the Brook Country Club is scheduled for after the Prom, May 10. Attendance will be restricted to seniors, juniors, Monogram Club members, and their guests. This was decided at the last meeting of the club, called by chairman Heiny Kaufmann, of Louisville, Ky.

At the same meeting it was decided to have a formal initiation into the Monogram Club of those basketball players who have received their letters. The letters will be awarded at the approaching banquet in the college dining room. The initiation will be held as soon as possible afterward.

A committee was appointed at the meeting to provide some kind of entertainment for Monogram Club members just before the close of school. Jack Fredlake, of South Bend; Roy Stone, of Evansville; Don Ronan, of Chicago; and Tom Scollard, of Indianapolis, comprise the committee chosen.

Major Prom Tasks Drop; Only Decorating Remains

With the taking of tux orders, April 29, one more step in becoming ready for the May 10 Prom was made.

Decorating the fieldhouse remains as the only major task. When calls are issued for volunteers, it is hoped that all Monogram Club and junior class members respond to make the classical theme a memorable one.

Tickets will be placed on sale as soon as they arrive from the Chicago printer. They will sell at $5.50, including tax. Money must accompany the purchase.

From all indications, a relatively large number of cars will be driven by students Prom night. With this in mind, we feel that transportation worries between town and the school or to the Country Club should be nonexistent. There is a possibility of a car pool being formed.

To quote Dick Causland: "Ring the success gong with Benny Strong."

BENNY STRONG

BENNY STRONG, whose band is at present slated to play for the Monogram Formal, is not new in the public eye. With his orchestra he features Diane Paige, Elwood Carl, Harry Gosling, and The Minute Men. When a lad, Benny was known as the original Milky Way Candy Boy; he was widely photographed by commercial photographers. He was once chosen by a national camera society as the Typical American Boy.

More About Banquet Speaker

"I would not rush to big corporations," said Mr. Travers, "except with the idea of learning how big business operates. I would look forward to going into business for myself. And I would go into something that takes a great deal of skill; in that way, the competition is not so great."

The speaker also mentioned that in looking for a job decisions should be based on "the kind of a man you will work for and your opportunities to meet interesting and worth-while people."

Fred Berghoff, junior from Fort Wayne, as president of the club, awarded keys to these eight senior members: Robert Taugher, of Vincennes, Ind.; Hugh Davey, Frankfort, Ind.; George Ellspermann, Evansville, Ind.; David Jones, Gary, Ind.; John Heiny, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Richard Mohr, Terre Haute, Ind.; Henry Kauffmann, Louisville, Ky.; and Fred Beckman, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

After the banquet, Mr. Travers held an informal question and answer period.

Carpenter Finishes Library Wall Clock

After alterations on the two concentric shafts which govern the hands were finished, the new library clock was put into service recently. Brother Fred Baechtel, c.p.p.s., carpenter, who made the alterations, also finished the hands and numbers out of mahogany.

On exhibition in the display case immediately outside the library is a collection of books dealing with scientific subjects.

Philosophers Select Collegeville Instructor For Vice-Presidency

Succeeding the Rev. Gerald Benkert, O.S.B., the Rev. Edward A. Maziarz, c.p.p.s., was elected vice-president of the Indiana Philosophical Association at its spring meeting held at St. Joseph's last Saturday. Father Benkert, former rector of the minor seminary at St. Meinrad's, Ind., has been confirmed as Abbot of Marmion Abbey, Aurora, Ill.

In this new capacity, Father Maziarz will also act as councilor for the junior division of the association and will preside over its meetings.

Eleven colleges and universities were represented at the meeting; twenty-five delegates were members of the senior division, and seventy-eight were of the junior group. The Very Rev. Henry A. Lucks, c.p.p.s., president of the college, welcomed the association during the business meeting.

Schools represented were Butler, West Baden College, DePauw, Indiana University, St. Mary's of Notre Dame, St. Mary's of the Woods, Franklin, Notre Dame, St. Meinrad Seminary, Marian, and St. Joseph's.

Discussions were held in the classroom building and in the theater from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. The business meeting began at 12:30 p. m.

Cleaning of Grotto Prepares for May

Seven members of the Sanguinist Club—Peter Mascari, Albert Klein, Arthur Beriault, Daniel O'Connor, Vincent Dietzen, Frank Crawford, and John Vargo—have been busy for the past week preparing the grotto for May, the month dedicated to the Blessed Mother.

Flowers will be placed there as well as on the main and Blessed Mother altars during the May triduum. The triduum will be conducted May 7-9. At the conclusion a souvenir booklet will be distributed to the students.

Collections for the national shrine to Mary Immaculate and for flowers for the triduum were begun Wednesday. Anyone who has any other donations is asked to contact club members before Saturday.

The club sponsored a drive to make May Day on the campus a real Christian May Day in honor of Mary, Queen of Peace, as contrasted to the Russian May Day dedicated to revolution. The entire student body was asked to attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in her honor.

Local Philatelists See Stamp Display

Five members of the Farley Stamp Club and their moderator, the Rev. Gilbert F. Esser, c.p.p.s., attended a stamp exhibit held at the Hotel Fowler, Lafayette, Ind., last Sunday. The exhibit was put on by the local philatelic association of Lafayette.

The regular meeting of the club will be held this evening in the classroom building beginning at 7:15; students are invited to attend. One of the members will discuss the recent exhibit, and plans for the Farley Club's stamp display to be held later this month will be continued.
